Alison Seddon

Alison began her dance training at her mother's school, the Janet Ashton School of Dance, in Lincoln and then at Tozer Studios under Alison Willett. She undertook her vocational training at Leeds Dance College, under the tutelage of Cynthia Carr.

Alison danced and choreographed professionally for five years, particularly for E&B Productions, alongside teaching work before turning to teaching full time as Vice Principal of the school in Lincoln and various schools and colleges in Lincoln, Yorkshire and the East Midlands. During this time she was also Co-founder of the Theatre Royal Youth Theatre in Lincoln.

Alison has been a teacher and adjudicator at the Classical Greek Dance Ruby Ginner Awards over many years and has twice been invited to deliver the Gladys Thorpe Memorial Lecture in Classical Greek Dance for the IDTA. She has also choreographed work for the ISTD Classical Greek Vocational level syllabi and has served on the Classical Greek Dance committee. Alison is a triple genre examiner for the ISTD in Modern, Tap and Classical Greek and an approved teacher training tutor. She is a dance adjudicator for the British and International Federation of Festivals
